

Atlanta YLAI Fellow One-Line Bios and Company Information

Andres Saenz Penas, from Colombia, is the Executive Director of CIVIX Colombia, providing a unique service in its country by offering schools high-value educational content about democracy that turns real-world political events into learning opportunities.

Deshane Avon Guterrez Lopez, from Belize, is the Clinical Director and CEO of Counselling and Psychological Services Ltd., a private mental health practice that specializes in psychological evaluation and educates, empowers and equips its clients with the tools to manage depression, trauma, and other mental health struggles.

Fernando Luis Garcia Ayola, from Colombia, is the CEO of Health Engineering Design (HED), which identifies and offers solutions to issues in specific health contexts through engineering and design to generate coherent, high-impact solutions.

Jeferson Giovanni Tenorio, from Colombia, is the Co-Founder of Bochinche Foundation, a youth organization that engages young people (aged 14–28 years), especially those living in dangerous areas, with a six-month training program focused on leadership, human rights, environment, sexuality, culture, and art.

Jill Charmaine Sumter, from Suriname, is the Chairperson of Buurt Organisatie Pontbuiten en Omgeving (BuPO), a local community organization working in finance and aimed at developing its community in the broadest way possible by working with other organizations and relevant people.

Lucas Bravo, from Colombia, is the Founder and CEO of Educambio, which believes in sustainable social transformation through quality education opportunities following a triple impact business model.

Luis Alfredo Castellanos Castellanos, from Colombia, is the CEO of ITA Editorial, a publishing house with a large community of talented writers who are aged 18–35 years who have few or no published books and know the importance of publishing but do not have a plan for how to do it.

Marcela Eunice Vega, from El Salvador, is the Founder of Eme Música, a music management agency working with Salvadoran artists to develop sustainable music careers and develop the music industry in El Salvador by creating new opportunities for artists in different international markets.

Patricia Silva Zanella, from Brazil, is the Co-Founder and CMO of EcoCiclo, which developed the first 100% biodegradable sanitary pads manufactured in Brazil with the goal to advocate for social justice and sustainability, end menstrual poverty, empower women to be financially independent, and increase access to pads for women in marginalized communities.

Pavlova Maria Polanco Alvarenga, from Honduras, is the Founder and Coordinator of Sin Tanto Alboroto (Sexual and Reproductive Health Program) which provides health services and education on sexual and reproductive health to indigenous women and adolescents.

Romano Vishaal Jalimsingh, from Suriname, is the Founder and President of Night Owl Projects N.V., a consultancy bureau that offers professional services in the fields of environmental communication, legal advice, project management, and social entrepreneurship for marginalized communities in Suriname.

Varsha Prescella Boejharat, from Suriname, is the Founder and CEO of Papeeta Basket, a small-scale business producing sustainable agricultural goods, primarily fresh quality papaya and related goods for the local market.

..and two others from Nicaragua.