

Art of Diplomacy Tours

Cuba

January 23-27, 2025

LET'S GO TO CUBA! JAN 23-27, 2025

Curious about Cuba? Ambassador (ret.) Charles Shapiro is leading a trip to Havana on January 23-27 to meet with a wide range of Cuban academics, artists, small business owners and others to figure out what is going on and how the US should respond. We will meet with the Acting US Ambassador to Cuba as well as the Cuban Ministry of Foreign Affairs (requested).

We will meet in the Havana airport on Thursday, January 23 and depart on flights the late afternoon on Monday, January 27. We will stay in privately owned, comfortable boutique hotels.

Travelers can secure their spot with a $1,000 deposit and by signing the sales agreement.

WHAT'S INCLUDED?

The cost per traveler of $3,250 single occupancy, $2,750 double occupancy includes:

- 4 nights' accommodations with breakfast
- All group meals as indicated in the itinerary
- Professional, bilingual guides
- Ground transportation
- Health insurance while in Cuba
- Admission to all museums and public buildings

Travelers are responsible for making their own arrangements to and from Havana. In Cuba, we will partner with Cuba Educational Travel for all other arrangements.

Note: This policy trip complies with all U.S. Treasury Department regulations.

For more information, contact Amanda Mattingly at mattinglyac@gmail.com or visit artofdiplomacytours.com